Using Web 2.0 tools to engage students in collaborative writing and grammar e-tivities

Presented at the 18th Annual HUPE Conference, Opatija, Croatia, 15-18 April 2010.

Abstract

If you are looking for a feasible way to introduce web-based activities (e-tivities), there are numerous Web 2.0 tools you may find suitable for that purpose. This presentation will give you some insights into designing e-tivities with Web 2.0 tools to support teaching and enhance students' writing and grammar skills.
